

Entry 207: Sensory Details Poem

Write five-stanza poem about a food you like or hate:

- Focus on a different sense in each stanza; by the end of the poem readers will understand the smell, sight, taste, touch, and sounds associated with this food.
- Each stanza should be at least four lines long.
- Create sensory images carefully so readers understand how you feel about the food.