

Entry 87: Response Journal Evaluation 2

Part 1: BEFORE assigning point values based on the criteria provided, neatly write one full page about the following:

1. Evaluate the quality and completeness of your work. How thoughtful are your notes and responses? Are all of your entries included AND complete?
2. Comment on your organization and presentation. How easy is it to find, read, and use the information in your journal?
3. Reflect on what you have learned. What do you think are the most important topics that you have covered? Why? What connections can you make between ideas explored in different journal entries?

Part 2: Read the criteria below and grade your journal carefully. Accurately record a score for each category. Neatly incorporate this sheet into journal.
