

Entry 73: Symbols—Support

For the symbol you looked at already (or a different one if you're not feeling great about that symbol), find four new quotations related to it that seem important. Include page numbers.

For each quotation, write three to five sentences that explain why it is significant.