Directions: Read the quotations carefully, and then respond to the ideas and feelings presented in one or more of the passages. Agree, disagree, question, expand, reflect, compare, contrast, evaluate, synthesize, etc. Neatly fill at least one page.

"Silence, indifference and inaction were Hitler's principal allies." Baron Jakobovits Immanuel

"I decided to devote my life to telling the story because I felt that having survived I owe something to the dead.... and anyone who does not remember betrays them again." Elie Wiesel (author of Night)

"There were many ways of not burdening one's conscience, of shunning responsibility, looking away, keeping mum. When the unspeakable truth of the Holocaust then became known at the end of the war, all too many of us claimed that they had not known anything about it or even suspected anything." Richard von Weizsäcker

"When I came to power, I did not want the concentration camps to become old age pensioners homes, but instruments of terror." Adolf Hitler

"I am convinced that nothing will happen to me, for I know the greatness of the task for which Providence has chosen me." Adolf Hitler

"We who lived in concentration camps can remember the men who walked through the huts comforting others, giving away their last piece of bread. They may have been few in number, but they offer sufficient proof that everything can be taken from a man but one thing: the last of human freedoms - to choose one's attitude in any given set of circumstances - to choose one's own way." Victor Frankl

"When Hitler attacked the Jews ... I was not a Jew, therefore, I was not concerned. And when Hitler attacked the Catholics, I was not a Catholic, and therefore, I was not concerned. And when Hitler attacked the unions and the industrialists, I was not a member of the unions and I was not concerned. Then, Hitler attacked me and the Protestant church—and there was nobody left to be concerned." Martin Niemöller
