

Entry 31: Short Story Subject Exploration

Choose one of the stories we have read so far to focus on for this assignment. Create a visual representation on the next blank page in your journal that traces the development of ideas about one of the subjects explored in the story. Incorporate all of the following elements onto one page in a colorful and creative way that fills the space:

- Three quotations that reveal something about how one character feels about or learns something about the subject.
- A comment of 7 to 10 sentences that explains what you think the author wants readers to understand or learn about this subject. Be sure to discuss the quotations you chose, and how they help convey ideas about the subject.
- A map, series of drawings, graphic representation, or set of symbols that visually conveys the development ideas about the subject throughout the story.
- A creative and meaningful title.
